doonbrae...

The location of Doonbrae is undoubtedly one of its greatest assets, situated opposite the Brig o'Doon Hotel in Alloway, this stunning house has over five acres of superb gardens reaching down to the banks of the River Doon. Doonbrae is in yet another unique setting as a possible venue for your Wedding Day. With its beautiful maintained gardens and grounds, Doonbrae will provide you and your photographer with wonderful photo-shoot opportunities to capture the essence of your special day in this special setting.

This beautiful 19th century house, has been furnished and decorated to the highest standards to provide luxury and privacy on an exclusive use package.

Doonbrae could barely be more perfect for smaller weddings, offering quite simply the biggest levels of comfort, facilities and hospitality for the most discerning guests. The house, recently refurbished has exceptional charm and its dedicated team of staff creates an atmosphere of quality & discretion.

The house comprises of a drawing room, study and dining room and five luxurious bedrooms. In the grounds there are two self-contained cottages, The Gables and Red Rose Cottage.
